

Science, Medicine and Cytology Summer Certificate Program

This summer certificate program is designed for high school and college students. It offers participants an in-depth perspective and exposure to the fields of science and medicine, with a specific focus on pathology and cytology. The course aims to discuss the essential tools needed for success in medicine, particularly in pathology.

For mor information and registration:

<https://cytopathology.org/page/SummerCertificateProgramRegistration>